

Dementia Training for Healthcare Professionals >>>

FREE: 1.5 IDFPR CEU for LSW/LCSW, LPC/LCPC, Psychologist

A new IDPH requirement, HB 158, Public Act 102-004, for dementia training. Attend this virtual presentation to meet the requirement. Chris Petrik will discuss the signs, symptoms, diagnosis criteria, and assessments for Alzheimer's disease and other types of Dementia. Attendees will learn the most common forms of Dementia, how they are treated, effective communication strategies for engaging with a person living with Dementia.

- Define mild cognitive impairment, Alzheimer's disease, and other dementias.
- Understand how Alzheimer's disease and other dementias (ADRD) affect a person.
- How ADRDs are assessed and diagnosed.
- Changes in communication related to ADRDs.
- Effective strategies to communicate and care for a Person Living with Dementia (PLWD).
- Behaviors: the why's and how's of management.

> Wednesday, August 27, 2025

> 11:00 am - 12:30 pm

> VIRTUAL TRAINING ON ZOOM

Registration Link >>>

Training Coordinator
Kris Doherty
kdoherty@mc708.org

Chris Petrik, RN, BSN
Elderwerks

