DEEPENING AND EXPANDING SOMATIC TECHNIQUES: THE EMBODIMENT OF TRAUMA AND STRESS PART II

FREE: 5 IDFP CEU'S FOR LSW/LCSW, LPC/LCPC, Psychologist, and IAODAPCA (Pending)

This advanced training invites practitioners to deepen their somatic expertise by exploring the nervous system's response to stress, trauma, and neurodivergence. Participants will refine clinical skills in embodied presence and moment-to-moment attunement, learning practical methods for titration, shame reduction, and supporting clients through dissociation or sensory overwhelm. Through experiential activities, the course covers the arc of a somatic session and the essential practice of self-resourcing to prevent vicarious fatigue, ultimately enhancing the practitioner's capacity to support body wisdom and capacity in diverse treatment settings.

There will be a 1 hour lunch on your own.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT PREVENTION

FREE: 1 IDFP CEU'S FOR LSW/LCSW, LPC/LCPC, and Psychologist

The U.S Equal Employment Opportunity Commission report that they have received over 12,000 charges of sex-based harassment allegations every year since 2010. This highlights a significant issue in workplace culture. In order to address this in Illinois, it was signed into law that all employers are required to train their employees on sexual harassment. This training will define sexual harassment and examine the options available to those who experience it.

At the end of this training, participants will be able to:

- Discuss conduct that constitutes as sexual harassment
- Examine options available to report allegations of sexual harassment
- Identify protections for retaliation

TRAUMA 101:

KEY PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICAL APPROACHES

FREE: 1.5 IDFPR CEU'S FOR LSW/LCSW, LPC/LCPC, Psychologist, and IAODAPCA

This training introduces trauma-informed basics, distinguishing developmental trauma from shock trauma and showing how each affects emotions, thinking, and the body. It explains how trauma disrupts the stress-response system and clarifies that reactions stem from neurobiology, not character.

Participants learn simple mindful, expressive, and somatic tools, along with an overview of effective trauma therapies, and leave with practical skills to support clients safely.

Grief Guide

Grief is something every human experiences, yet most of us have no idea how to talk about it. Our culture rushes people through grief, avoids uncomfortable conversations, and expects people to “move on.” But grief doesn’t work that way. Join us to hear from Lisa Orris and gain practical insights and skills to support others or yourself through grief.

ETHICS AND BOUNDARIES IN TRAUMA INFORMED CARE & CULTURAL COMPETENCE IN CLINICAL PRACTICE

FREE: 6 IDFP CEU'S FOR LSW/LCSW, LPC/LCPC, Psychologist and IAODAPCA (Pending).

 In order to receive the CEU's, you'll have to attend the FULL TRAINING.*

Ethics and Boundaries in Trauma-Informed Care addresses how to support the majority of behavioral health clients with trauma histories. This presentation covers historical challenges, advocacy, and five traumatic stress disorders. It teaches participants how to avoid doing harm (the iatrogenic effect), maintain healthy boundaries, and transition into a trauma-informed organization.

Cultural Competence in Clinical Practice: This skill-building workshop covers the differences between cultural competence and humility, intersectional cross-cultural counseling, and the integration of cultural responsiveness with evidence-based practices. It also addresses Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services (CLAS) guidelines and organizational cultural responsiveness.

WORLD TRAUMA DAY

OUR ANCIENT BRAIN: UNDERSTANDING OURSELVES THROUGH EVOLUTION

FREE: 5.5 IDFPR CEU'S FOR LSW/LCSW, LPC/LCPC, Psychologist, and IAODAPCA (Pending)

This training provides mental health professionals with a trauma-informed lens based on evolutionary mismatch—the idea that ancient brains struggle in modern environments, causing anxiety, depression, and chronic stress. By reframing these symptoms as ancestral adaptations to reduce client shame, the framework seamlessly integrates with modalities like CBT, EMDR, and somatic approaches. Participants will learn six practical tools—including the physiological sigh, completing the stress cycle, and social co-regulation—concluding with a 30-day integration plan for immediate clinical use.
